Connecting Nature & Community

---

Natural Connections is a 501(c) 3 organization formed in cooperation with Yamhill Soil & Water Conservation District (District) to support the development and delivery of outdoor education and experiences at Miller Woods.

Each year, Miller Woods hosts over 3,000 students through outdoor science programs and field days; Many volunteers assist with these educational opportunities, and various other projects, contributing over 5000 volunteer hours annually at Miller Woods. Several hundred visitors hike the well-maintained and upgraded trails, or just come to visit the outdoors in a beautiful and peaceful setting.

Natural Connections Mission:

Natural Connections opens pathways to the dynamic wonders of nature by providing places to experience, study, and enjoy our natural environment. Natural Connections fosters appreciation, enjoyment, and long-term stewardship of our natural resources through education programs, experiential learning opportunities, and open spaces.

Your Membership Contribution...

1. Helps secure the expectation of a quality outdoor experience for future visitors by protecting and maintaining Miller Woods for public use.
2. Provides funds necessary to offer quality educational programs that allow everyone, especially our youth, to experience, study, and enjoy the dynamic wonders of nature.
3. Supports:
  - Internship and educational programs
  - Facility upgrades
  - Event supplies
4. Benefits include:
  - Miller Woods trail access
  - Special invitation to events at Miller Woods
  - Free or discounted admission to fundraisers

Individual $35 minimum donation
