

GROWING FARMS

Successful Whole Farm Management

Serious about farming?

Come learn how to navigate the biological, financial, and human aspects of small-scale farming.

For more information, visit smallfarms.oregonstate.edu/mid-valley/events
Accommodations for disabilities may be made by contacting Alisha Atha, 503-623-8395 or alisha.atha@oregonstate.edu.

Oregon State University

2019 Hybrid Course

Growing Farms hybrid course is designed for beginning specialty crop & livestock farmers in their first 5 years of business.

Students will develop a whole farm plan. Resource binder is included. Course consists of six on-line modules, 3 classroom sessions, and a field trip.

2019 Hybrid Class Dates & Location

Tuesdays, 6:00-8:30pm

Jan 22, Feb 5, Feb 19 (all day tour), Mar 5

Marion-Polk Food Share's Youth Farm
Winema Place NE, Salem, OR

Cost & Registration Details

$200 per person

Farm partner discount available

Includes discounted registration for OSU Small Farms Conference (Feb 23)

Additional scholarships may be available

<http://bit.ly/GrowingFarms2019>

Contact: Victoria Binning, 503-373-3774
or victoria.binning@oregonstate.edu